

Profile

Aratrika joined CUTS on 25th July, 2022 as a Research Associate.

She completed Masters in Economics with specialisation in International Trade from Symbiosis School of Economics, Pune in 2021.

Experience & Skills

She has done internship at Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT) New Delhi, and at the Federation of Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (FICCI).

She did her Masters Dissertation on the topic “International Trade Costs in Services: An Empirical Analysis Through Gravity Framework”.

Publications

She published a paper titled, “Relevance of Free Trade Agreements in the Indian Context: The Trends, Feasibility and Future Ahead” in the Indian Journal of Economics and Business, 19(2).

Supplementary Information

She has presented paper titled "Trends and the Way Forward Post COVID-19 in the Inflow of FDI in India", at the Bay of Bengal Dialogue, organised by the South Asian Network of Economic Modelling (SANEM) in February 2021. (Co-authored with Swati Verma)

She attended the UNCTAD Summer School 2020 on Globalization and Development Strategies; jointly organized by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) and the Institute of New Economic Thinking's Young Scholars Initiative (YSI).

SUMMARY CV

Aratrika Deb

Position

Research Associate

Year of birth

1997

Nationality

Indian

Language

English, Bengali and Hindi

Qualifications

M.Sc. Economics (International Trade), Symbiosis School of Economics, Pune.

B.Sc. (Honours) Economics, Gokhale Memorial Girls' College, University of Calcutta.

Research Interest

International Trade, Multilateral Relations, International Organisations, Economic Development, Political Economy.

Key skills

Microsoft Office, R, E-Views, Stata

Email Id

ard@cuts.org