

Profile

I have re-joined CUTS International as Assistant Policy Analyst on 30th December 2020. I have worked with CUTS earlier for more than seven years since September 2011 to March 2019. Major responsibilities include primary as well as secondary data analysis, report writing, communicating with partner/stakeholders. He is a post-graduate in Economics from Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi. His research interest includes primarily trade especially food trade; sustainable development; Migration and environmental issues.

Experience & Skills

CUTS International (September 2011 to March 2019): Providing inputs for reports writing, newsletters, briefing papers on ongoing various projects. Working with project team and undertaking various assignments related to social development in sector such as Agriculture, environmental Issues, government procurement and trade facilitation etc from Sep 2011 to Nov 2014. Since December 2014 onwards I was deputed by CUTS in the Ministry of Food Processing Industries to assist them on food trade related matters for five years. Major responsibilities in the Ministry includes assisting them on food trade related matters for bilateral/regional and multilateral issues

Research Analyst (February 2009 to November 2009): Worked on secondary data from Annual Survey of Industries to compile the data, analyses the data and also prepared a brief note on issues with the results.

Publications

1. Jha, Amit Kumar and Singh, Nitesh Kumar, "Ethnicity, Mobility and Role of Informal Channels: Evidence from Delhi Slums" Journal of Sociological Research, Vol. 5, No.1 PP. 92-112, Macrothink Institute, USA.2014
2. Jha, Amit Kumar and, Singh, Nitesh Kumar. "Predicting the Volatility of Stock Market and measuring its Interactions with Macroeconomic Variables: Indian Evidence, Case study of NIFTY and SENSEX", International Journal of Science: Basic and Applied Research, Vol 13 No.1, PP. 371-393, 2014
3. Jha, Brajesh, Singh, N. K, Mohanty, Biswajit: "The pattern of agricultural diversification inIndia" IEG Working paper 2009
4. Singh, N. K: "Potential for trade in seed between India and other SAARC countries, CUTS working paper, 2013,
5. Singh, Nitesh, K and Jha, Amit, "Migration, Mobility and Role of Informal Channels: Does Ethnicity Matters: Evidence from Delhi Slums". Indian Economic Review, July-December 2014, vol. XLIX Number 2.

SUMMARY CV

Nitesh Kumar Singh

Position:

Assistant Policy Analyst

Year of birth:

1982

Nationality

Indian

Language

Hindi, English

Qualifications

- M.A. in Economics, JMI Delhi
- B.A. Economics, Magadh University

Research Interest:

Trade and sustainable development especially food and agriculture trade, Analyzing data both primary as well as secondary for any issues and working on issues related to farmers and poor people.

Key skills

Basic knowledge of Stata, SPSS, SAS etc.

Email Id: nk@cuts.org